

THE FAIR HOUSING HOTLINE PROJECT

The Fair Housing Hotline Project provides education on fair housing laws and assistance to victims of housing discrimination.

You will have free access to legal advocates who will be able to:

- * Evaluate claims of housing discrimination and provide legal advice, assistance, or referrals for complaints of discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, familial status (families with children), disability, age, marital status, sexual orientation, or source of income.
- * Provide you information about scheduled trainings and workshops sponsored by the Fair Housing Hotline Project.
- * Give you general information about fair housing and provide written materials upon request.

Toll-free: (800) 400-2260

Email: fhhp@lsnc.net

619 North Street, Woodland, CA 95695

Fax: (530) 662-7941

Website: www.lsnc.net/fairhousing.html

The services of the Fair Housing Hotline Project are available to residents and agencies in the following counties: Amador, Butte, Calaveras, Del Norte, El Dorado, Glenn, Humbolt, Lake, Lassen, Mendocino, Modoc, Nevada, Placer, Plumas, Sacramento, Shasta, Sierra, Siskiyou, Solano, Tehema, Trinity, and Yolo.

The Fair Housing Hotline Project is a free service of Legal Services of Northern California, Inc. funded by the Fair Housing Initiatives Program grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Development.